

AN INDUSTRY LEADER IN

Private Label Spices and Seasonings

Since our founding in 1981, Vanns Spices has been creating flavor and delivering custom seasoning solutions for businesses of all sizes throughout the United States. Our Co-packing, Custom Blending, Private Labeling and Integrated Fulfillment services provide a one-stop-shop for our customers' spice and seasoning needs.

Whether developing new brands, expanding current product offerings, or scaling up for wider distribution, our team of Product Development Specialists can provide expert assistance and help improve your profitability. Our proven process gets products to market quickly, and our low minimums support easy entry through test markets, LTOs, or shipper programs.

Featuring a robust, premium-quality spice and seasoning inventory, Vanns' customers can select from hundreds of stock ingredients or consult with our Product Specialists to source custom materials. Either way, our culinary-trained Food Technologists can match existing blends or build new formulations for applications in retail (glass, PET, or flexible packaging), food service (PET), or manufacturing (portion pack or bag-in-a-box).

Strategically located within 1-2 day transit of 45% of the U.S.

population, our Baltimore-based manufacturing and warehouse center makes us the perfect partner to service all major East Coast and National markets.
